DECISION

This matter came on regularly for hearing on September 2, 1981 in Sacramento, California, before a quorum of the Board of Examiners in Veterinary Medicine consisting of Jean F. Guyer, public member, Charlene M. Drennon, public member, Rogelio F. Resurreccion, D.V.M., and Connor Jameson, D.V.M. and President of the Board, Valentino J. Marasco, D.V.M. having voluntarily disqualified himself from participation in the proceedings. Rudolf H. Michaels, an Administrative Law Judge of the Office of Administrative Hearings, presided.

The Attorney General was represented by Alfredo Terrazas, Deputy Attorney General.

The Petitioner was present and was represented by Ronald A. Parravano, his attorney.

Evidence including a letter introduced as part of Exhibit 1 and admitted over the strenuous objection of the Deputy Attorney General was received, the hearing was closed and the matter was submitted.

The Board makes the following Decision:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I

On June 24, 1974, the Board issued to Petitioner License No. 5490, authorizing him to practice veterinary medicine in the State of California.

II

Effective April 11, 1979, petitioner's license was revoked, after arising, upon determination by the Board that respondent had engaged in cruelty to animals on nine separate occasions, had employed and permitted an unlicensed person to perform services which only a licensed veterinarian may perform, had been convicted of aiding and abetting unlicensed practice and of cruelty to animals.

III

On about April 6, 1981, Petitioner applied to the Board for reinstatement of his license to practice veterinary medicine in the State of California.

IV

Petitioner has not rehabilitated himself to a sufficient degree to warrant the reinstatement of his license at this time.

DETERMINATION OF ISSUES

Cause was not established by Petitioner under Section 11522 of the Government Code for the granting of the application for reinstatement described in Finding III.

ORDER

The petition of Daniel Koller, D.V.M., for reinstatement of his license is denied.
