13 The Oregon Veterinary Medical Examining Board (OVMEB) is the state agency responsible 14 for regulating, licensing, and disciplining veterinarians in the State of Oregon. During all times 15 relevant to this proceeding, Daniel Koller was licensed as a veterinarian with the Board.

16 Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law
17

18 October 24, 2024, the Board filed a Proposed Notice of Discipline and mailed it certified
19 and regular mail to Licensee. That notice provided that the Board file would be used as the record
20 for purposes of default. That notice also notified Licensee that they needed to ask for a hearing 21 within 21 days. The Board did not receive a hearing request during those 21 days. On December 12, 22 2024, the Board received a check for $250. On or about, December 31, 2024, when sent a 23 settlement agreement to consider, Licensee made a late hearing request, stating in sum, that he 24 thought the Propose Notice of Discipline “was a simple citation as the amount demanded reflected.
25 I felt no need to waste my time on this matter. That is why I paid the fine.” The Board finds that 26 this was not good cause for the late hearing request and issues this default final order.

27 The Board now finds the following facts and conclusions of law: On or about April 12,
28 2024, Licensee performed a spay on cat Hissy, during which you discovered an abscess that you 29 treated and closed with steel surgical staples. Licensee provided home care instructions for the 30 spay, but failed to provide any home care instructions for the abscess, which was in violation of

OAR 875-011-0010(9), which is grounds for a $250 civil penalty under ORS 686.120(1) and ORS 686.150(7).

Final Order

The Board hereby assess an $250 total civil penalty.

DATED this 17th day of April 2025.
